

As a 38 year teacher of American History to high school kids, I find it impossible to explain to them how it is appropriate for the FCC to allow greater concentration of media ownership by a few huge corporations. That proposal is incredibly dangerous to our democracy. High school kids immediately grasp that danger. I plead with you to reconsider.